What is an indulgence?

An indulgence is the remission of temporal punishment due to sin, which is won by the merits of Christ and dispensed through the treasury of grace, which is the Church. An indulgence is applied partially or fully for oneself or for another.

When a person celebrates the Sacrament of Penance, that person obtains forgiveness for his sins. This includes having contrition for one's sins, confessing those sins to a priest, receiving absolution, and promising to make satisfaction (through an assigned Penance). Although one's sin may be absolved and a person is free of eternal punishment, some effects of sin still remain. Those effects require additional satisfaction. Consider a helpful analog: in the natural order, if I steal my neighbor's bike, he might forgive me, which makes us friends again. But in order for our relationship to be fully restored, I need to return the bike to my friend. In the same way, we must return to God what belongs to him—right praise and worship, which we have sullied by our sins.

The Church therefore teaches that all who die in God's grace and friendship, but are still imperfectly purified -- while assured of their eternal salvation -- must undergo purification after death in order to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. The Church calls this temporal punishment Purgatory. A partial indulgence remits some of the temporal punishment due to sin, whereas a plenary indulgence remits all of the temporal punishment due to sin.

An indulgence is a favor befitting the magnanimity and goodness of God who never ceases to pardon. We are not "owed" indulgences; they are gifts from the treasury of the Church for the benefit of the faithful.

How can I obtain a plenary indulgence?

Although several pious actions (such as praying before the Blessed Sacrament for thirty minutes or reciting the Holy Rosary in a church) render one disposed to receive a plenary indulgence during any time, there are several more opportunities to benefit from a plenary indulgence during the Jubilee Year of 2025. In order to obtain a plenary indulgence, one must perform some "indulged action," such as a pious visit, pilgrimage, or work of mercy as determined by the Church, and also fulfill the following conditions:

1. Receive Holy Communion
2. Receive the Sacrament of Penance before receiving Holy Communion (usually within 8 days), or after receiving Holy Communion (if one does not labor under mortal sin -- again, usually within 8 days)
3. Pray for the intentions of the Holy Father (typically, by saying an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be)
4. Be properly disposed through detachment from all sin, both mortal and venial

Make a Pilgrimage

The faithful will be able to obtain the Jubilee Indulgence if they undertake a pious pilgrimage to any of the Jubilee sites (e.g., one of the four major basilicas in the city of Rome, one of the three basilicas in the Holy Land, or the Cathedral Church or another church designated by the local Ordinary). In the Diocese of Providence, the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, Providence, will serve as the local Jubilee site.

Make a pious visit to a sacred place (such as our Cathedral)

The faithful can obtain the jubilee indulgence if, individually or in a group, they devoutly visit a Jubilee site (such as the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, Providence), and for a suitable period of time. Engage in Eucharistic adoration and meditation. Conclude adoration with an Our Father, the Profession of Faith, and invocations to Mary, the Mother of God

Perform Works of mercy and penance

The faithful will also be able to obtain the Jubilee Indulgence if they visit, for an appropriate amount of time, their brothers and sisters who are in need or in difficulty (the sick, prisoners, lonely elderly people, disabled people), thus making a pilgrimage to Christ present in them. The faithful can repeat these visits throughout the Holy Year, acquiring a plenary indulgence each time.

Participate in a Mission, Spiritual Exercise or Formation Activity

The faithful will be able to obtain the Jubilee Indulgence if, with a devout spirit, they participate in "popular missions, spiritual exercises, or formation activities on the documents of the Second Vatican Council and the Catechism of the Catholic Church," held in a church or another suitable place, according to the mind of the Holy Father.

First Holy Communion

Congratulations to the following children who on May 11th, received their First Communion. May they deepen ever more their friendship with Jesus and may He be their companion each day of their lives.

Classroom News.. Mrs. Megan Reitz Middle School Religion & Social Studies

The students have been working hard in all classes as we come to the close of the year. Something new I am working on, with all 6-8 Social Studies classes, is a gallery walk. Each student is creating a museum piece related to their year end study unit. We will present them in Cafe Rocco at the end of May. The students, and myself, are very excited about this project. Listening to the collaboration, chatter and understanding of their subjects has been a treat. Eighth Grade will be presenting something on World War 1. Some examples are, The Role of Espionage and Secret Operations in WW1, The Role of Italy in WW1, Life in the Trenches and The Christmas Truce of 1914. Seventh Grade will be presenting on the Revolutionary War. Some examples of what the students will be presenting are writing a short story on the life of someone affected by the Yellow Fever Epidemic, Creating a Revolutionary War Newspaper Article, and Creating an Illustrated Journal of a Revolutionary Doctor and the illnesses they may have encountered. I am excited to see how this turns out!

Religion classes have been learning about our new Pope, Pope Leo XIV. We have followed right along and learned how a Pope is chosen, all about a conclave, and white and black smoke! We will continue on as we study his life and his missionary work further in class. We continue to pray for Pope Leo XIV in all classes so that we may follow his beautiful example of what it means to be a Christian! It has been so exciting watching history with the Middle School! I know they will always remember this as part of St. Rocco memories for years to come!

St. Rocco School is Accepting Applications for the 2025~2026 School Year ~ Grades PK 3 to 8th
