From the Pastor's Desk:

Annual Feast & Festival in Honor of St. Rocco

This week we begin our Annual Feast and Festival in Honor of our Patron, St. Rocco. This is an opportunity for all parishioners to show our love and devotion to our Patron and our Parish. In these upcoming days, there are so many ways all of us can participate in the festivities. As we should with any activity, we begin with Prayer. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings Mass will be celebrated at 7:00 PM. On Wednesday evening, after Mass we will have the Annual Candlelight Procession in Honor of The Blessed Mother. Thursday evening begins the Carnival under the tent and will conclude on Sunday evening. On Sunday morning at 11:00 AM we will celebrate the Feast Mass with the Procession following and the Blessing and Distribution of the St. Rocco Bread.

Under the Tent there will be Games of Skill and Chance, the Straw Draw, Religious Articles, Candles in Honor of St. Rocco, Major Donor Tickets, Raffle Tickets, the Beer Garden, many Delicious Eatables for your dinning delight, and, of course, Doughboys! So many people have been, and continue, to work very hard in preparing so many wonderful things!

This Annual Feast and Festival is a chance for us, as a Parish, to come together as a true community of believers supporting one another in our Faith and Cultural Traditions. I ask that ALL our Parishioners participate in the Feast in some way. Come to the Masses this week and spend some time in Prayer. Come to Carnival and enjoy the food and company of family and friends. Come to the Feast Mass and Procession and show the world we are proud of our Faith and proud to have St. Rocco as our Patron.

We also need Prayer for the Feast to be successful. If you are homebound, or sick or live in another State; your prayers are powerful, needed and very much appreciated. Pray for good weather! Pray for good crowds! Pray for a good communal and fraternal spirit among all our Parishioners!

Each year that goes by, I am amazed at the number of volunteers, of all ages, who give so much of their time and talent to make our Feast so successful. I am so grateful to all those who make this Feast possible. I pray to Almighty God in thanks for your generous and hardworking spirit.

Through the intercession of St. Rocco, may God Bless us all! Viva San Rocco!

God Bless,
Fr. Carusi

The Most Rev. Bruce A. Lewendowski, C.Ss.R.,

Bishop of Providence

Satanic priest turned Saint

Bartolo Longo is proof that no one is too lost to be found. Sometimes reading the lives of the saints can be discouraging. They may have been imperfect, as we all are, but it can seem none of them ever really sinned the way people today do. It's easy for those of us who have made terrible choices to feel discouraged. Like many saints, Bartolo was raised in a faithful Catholic family. Unlike most saints, Bartolo spent his 20s as a Satanic priest. Born in 1841, Bartolo Longo lost his father when he was only 10. From that time, he grew more and more distant from his Catholic faith. When he began his studies in Naples, at the University where St. Thomas Aquinas had studied, he was eager to enter fully into the experience of a secular university. In mid-19th-century Italy, that meant anti-clericalism, atheism, and ultimately the occult. He lured people away from the Catholic faith, publicly ridiculing the Church. Before long, the newly minted lawyer was "ordained" a priest of Satan.

Before long, Bartolo found himself paranoid and miserable, on the brink of a nervous breakdown. As he clung to his Satanic practices, his family prayed. The prayers of Bartolo's family finally broke down the wall of anger and sin Bartolo had built around himself. One night, he heard a voice crying out to him, "Return to God!" Before long he agreed to meet with a Dominican priest, Fr. Alberto Radente. Fr. Alberto worked on the young lawyer, encouraging him to make a thorough confession. After a month of direction, Bartolo was finally absolved and began his work of drawing people back to Christ. Then, cleansed and consecrated, Bartolo visited one last séance. He walked in, held up a rosary and called out, "I renounce spiritualism because it is nothing but a maze of error and falsehood."

But for all he had been absolved, Bartolo struggled with memories of his past. He felt unworthy of God's forgiveness, certain he was permanently marred by his sin. One day, while collecting rent from the destitute farmers around Pompeii, Bartolo began to consider his past way of life. "Despite my repentance, I thought: I am still consecrated to Satan, and I am still his slave and property as he awaits me in Hell. As I pondered over my condition, I experienced a deep sense of despair." In that moment, Bartolo remembered the rosary of his childhood, remembered the love of the Blessed Mother. He felt Our Lady tell him his path to heaven was through teaching others to pray the Rosary. Bartolo moved to Pompeii, where he began Rosary groups, organized Marian processions, and began work on a shrine to Our Lady of the Rosary. For more than 50 years, Bartolo preached the Rosary, founded schools for the poor, established orphanages for the children of criminals, and transformed a city of death to a city dedicated to the living Mother of God. At his beatification, St. John Paul II, proclaimed Blessed Bartolo Longo "a Man of Mary."

Fr. Joseph-Anthony Kress, O.P., entered the Dominican Friars of the Province of St. Joseph in 2010. He made his solemn profession on August 9, 2014, and was ordained a priest on May 21, 2016. In the spring of 2010, he graduated from Franciscan University of Steubenville with a Bachelor of Arts and subsequently received a Bachelor of Sacred Theology and Masters of Divinity from the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception. Fr. Joseph-Anthony served as the Chaplain to Catholic Hoos at the University of Virginia from 2017-2024. In 2025, he began to serve as the Promoter of the Rosary for the Province of St. Joseph and Associate Director of the Dominican Friars Foundation. He is a co-host of the Godsplaining podcast alongside three of his Dominican classmates. Over the years he has worked in overseeing large-scale liturgies which include World Youth Day Krakow, USCCB Convocation, Fr. Emil Kapaun Homecoming, Amazing Parish Conferences, and the National Eucharistic Congress. A native of St. Clairsville, OH, he is the youngest of three.

St. Rocco Feast Sponsorship Opportunities

Each year thousands of guests visit our Parish Feast and enjoy all we have to offer; be it the wide selection of food offerings, ice cold beverages, and delectable desserts.

Have you ever thought about having your family's name associated with our Delicious Sausage & Pepper Sandwiches or Homemade Meatballs and Eggplant? To help defray the cost of the Feast? The opportunities are plentiful and available to anyone who would like to lend additional support to our Parish Feast. Donations can remain anonymous or be named in the Parish Bulletin. You could sponsor in memory of a loved one or on behalf of your family. Further information is available by contacting Fr. Carusi after Mass or call the Rectory Office: 942-5203.
