From the Pastor's Desk:

A Sunday With Many Names

The Sunday after Easter, that concludes the Octave (eight days) of Easter, has many names in addition to its current liturgical designation as the Second Sunday of Easter. Here are this day's other names and the history behind them.

Dominica in albis - Latin for "Sunday in white". This was the last day that the neophytes, those who had been baptized at the Easter Vigil, wore the white garments they had received at Baptism to Mass.

Low Sunday - after the highest of Sundays at Easter, this Sunday concludes the Octave and therefore resembles a lower feast than Easter Day itself.

Divine Mercy Sunday - the last day of the novena to the Divine Mercy of Jesus which begins on Good Friday. Saint Faustina, a Polish nun, gave this devotion to the Church through her diary in which she writes that those who participate in the Mass and receive the Sacrament of Penance on this day are assured of the total remission of their sins by the Lord Jesus. Saint John Paul II greatly promoted this devotion and designated the Sunday after Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Quasimodo Sunday - from the Latin Introit (Entrance Chant) of the Mass for the Sunday after Easter: Quasi modo geniti infantes... "As newborn babies..." (1 Peter 2:2) Literally, quasi modo means "as if just now" - the Sunday is almost Easter all over again, but not quite. This name is given to the lead character in The Hunchback of Notre Dame because his adoptive father, the archdeacon of the cathedral, "baptized his adoptive child and called him Quasimodo; whether it was that he chose thereby to commemorate the day when he had found him, or that he meant to mark by that name how incomplete and imperfectly molded the poor little creature was. Indeed, Quasimodo, one-eyed, hunchbacked, and bow-legged, could hardly be considered as anything more than an 'almost'". (excerpt from The Hunchback of Notre Dame by Victor Hugo)

The Easter Season lasts a full fifty days - from Easter Sunday until Pentecost. The Church celebrates the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus from the dead throughout this period is also known as Mystagogy. Mystagogy is the Easter time of reflection by those who became Catholic at Easter. For fifty days they enter more deeply into the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection they experienced with Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Communion. During this time they become more comfortable living the Christian life as full members of the Catholic Church.

Those of us already baptized should really make this a time of joy! Try to establish traditions in your family that extend the Easter celebration. This is the perfect time for the parish's First Holy Communion and Confirmation Masses. These are times to appreciate what we can do with the gift of life God gives us. Keep Easter candy and treats handy for the whole season. Whatever you do, rejoice! Alleluia!

God Bless, Fr. Carusi

Divine Mercy Chaplet & Benediction

Saint Faustina was born Helena Kowalska in Poland, on August 25, 1905. She was the third of ten children. When she was almost twenty, she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy.

The following year she received her religious habit and was given the name Sister Maria Faustina, to which she added “of the Most Blessed Sacrament.” In the 1930s Sr. Faustina received from the Lord a message of mercy she was told to spread throughout the world. She was asked to become the apostle of God's mercy, a model of how to be merciful to others, and an instrument for reemphasizing God's plan of mercy for the world. Her entire life, in imitation of Christ's, was to be a sacrifice; a life lived for others. At the Divine Lord's request, she willingly offered her personal sufferings atone for the sins of others; in her daily life she was to become a doer of mercy, bringing joy and peace to others; and by writing about God's mercy, she was to encourage others to trust in Him and prepare the world for His coming again.

For four years she recorded Divine revelations and mystical experiences, together with her own inmost thoughts, insights, and prayers. The result is a book that repeats and clarifies the gospel story of God's love for His people, emphasizing, above all, the need to trust in His loving action. It also reveals an extraordinary example of how to respond to God's mercy and manifest it to others. Sr. Faustina's spiritual life was based on deep humility, purity of intention, and loving obedience to the will of God in imitation of the virtues of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Her special devotion to Mary Immaculate and to the Holy Eucharist and the Sacrament of Penance gave her the strength to bear all the suffering that God willed for her. She died at the age of 33 from tuberculosis and was canonized by Pope John Paul II.

“I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners, On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are open all the Divine floodgates through which graces flow, let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.” (From Sr. Faustina's Diary)

A Special Word of Thanks...

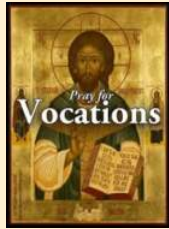

St. Rocco's Parish offers its gratitude and appreciation to all those who made our Holy Week and Easter Liturgical Celebrations so beautiful.

To our Music Ministry, under the direction of Chris Caramello, along with our Cantors and Choir who worked many hours rehearsing and preparing for Lent, Holy Week and Easter.

To Deacon Troia and all our Sacristans, Altar Servers, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and Ushers who, through their presence and hard work, added dignity and reverence to each of the Masses and Ceremonies during this Sacred time of year.

To all those who helped decorate, clean and prepare our Church for this most Solemn Time of the Year.

May the Lord reward their service!

Prayer for Vocations

O God our provident Father through your Son you revealed to us the mysteries of the Kingdom; you will that all men and women be saved and come to the knowledge of your Truth. Send workers into your great harvest, grant that more men will serve your Church as priests for the Diocese of Providence, that the Gospel may be preached to every creature and your people, strengthened by the word of life and the sacraments may advance in the way of salvation and love. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen

A Friendly Reminder...

Please remember to make up your budget envelopes if you are away from St. Rocco's. Thank for your assistance in maintaining the weekly needs of our Parish. Please go www.churchofsaintrocco.org and connect to the link for Parish Giving.

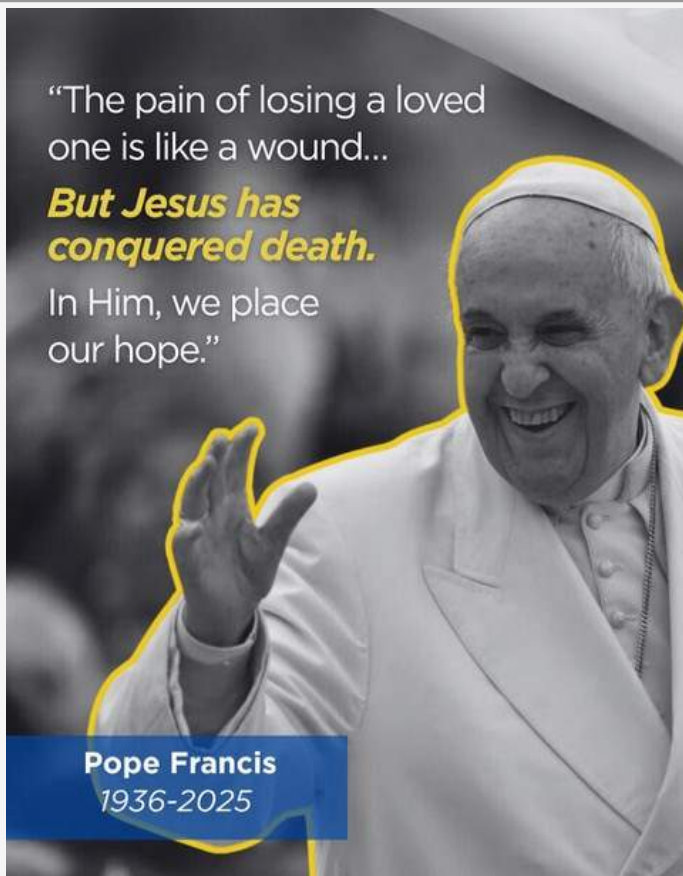

Prayer for a Deceased Pope

God, Who, in Thine ineffable providence, didst will that Thy servant Francis ... should be numbered among the high priests; grant, we beseech Thee, that he, who on earth held the place of Thine only-begotten Son, may be joined forevermore to the fellowship of Thy holy pontiffs. Through the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end. Amen.

Requiem Aeternam ("Eternal Rest")

V. Eternal rest grant unto Francis, O Lord.
R. And let the perpetual light shine upon him.

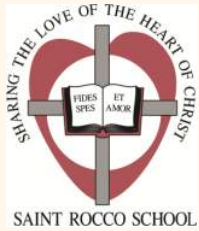

And may his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

"The pain of losing a loved one is like a wound...

But Jesus has conquered death.

In Him, we place our hope."

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL!

Easter is a time of joy, faith and hope. In religion we are learning all about Jesus' Gift of Forgiveness and Peace. We met Jesus in the Sacraments of Reconciliation for the first time. Now we are learning all about the gift of Holy Eucharist and getting ready for our First Holy Communion. We are so happy to learn about the parts of Mass.

Math is everywhere; in your house, in the shopping center, in the park, in the church, in school etc. We had so much fun counting money and telling time. Now we are dealing with 3-digit numbers. Guess what, we will be expert to add and subtract 3-digit numbers especially regrouping. We can't wait to have fun with shapes.

Reading is fun and we continue to explore and learn various genres such as, fiction and nonfiction stories and articles, fantasy, autobiography, biography etc. We enjoy reading and learning many types of stories. We had so much writing the biography of one of our family members.

In Science, we have been learning all about our Earth, such as, earth's land, water, how earth changes, rocks and minerals, and earth resources. We are enjoying doing hands on activities, projects, and experiments. It was so fun to learn about the skeleton! Now we learned that we have 206 bones!

In Social Studies, we are learned about the world region and cardinal direction using maps and globe. We are looking forward to learn about the 13 colonies. We are acquiring more knowledge and insight from the weekly Scholastic Magazine. Wow! it is a wonderful nourishment for our minds! We enjoy reading, watching videos, and learning various topics!

In Health, we learned all about the parts and functions of our organs. Now we are doing a project, " I am What I Eat." We have so fun using technology in our lessons every day especially using Chrome Books for various skills in Math, Reading and typing skills.

You see, our day is so busy but we are getting smarter each day and having fun at the same time. We can't wait for our Spring Production. Hope to see you all.
