*From the Pastor's Desk:21st Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

When Our Lord asks His disciples, Who do people say the Son of Man is? He receives many answers. They all seem to have their own opinion. Perhaps they're satisfied their opinions are correct and have stopped seeking; perhaps they're too lazy to pursue the truth any deeper. Experience tells us it's easy to say something, to toss out an answer, to draw a superficial conclusion. We must be careful not to come to a hurried conclusion or be satisfied with what might only apparently be true. Many people say many things about Christ. We must have the tenacity to pursue the profound truth about who He is.

How did Peter know that Christ was the Messiah, the Son of the living God? We don't hear Peter say in the Gospel: The heavenly Father told me that you are the Messiah. He was probably not even aware the Father had been working in him. By this time, Peter and the other Apostles had been traveling with Our Lord, hearing Him speak and seeing Him work miracles. Certainly Peter reflected on all this and began to perceive that Jesus is much more than just a brilliant teacher. Peter began to see Jesus for who He truly is.

In the same way, God works in our mind and heart, helping us to see the truth of supernatural things. We may not even be aware that the heavenly Father is present, but when we sincerely strive to know Christ and are open to the action of God's grace in our soul, we, too, come to know Christ for who He is.

Peter's openness to the action of God's grace and his recognition of Christ as God bring with them a responsibility – Peter is given the keys of the Kingdom. He's given the task of shepherding and building up the Church. Like Peter, our recognition of Christ comes with responsibility. God gives us the gift of faith and along with it the responsibility to spread His Gospel. We must take this responsibility seriously. We need to make sure the good news of the kingdom is proclaimed to all peoples. We should be willing to delve deep into the truth about who Jesus really is and not to be satisfied with simply having some vague idea. We should want to know Jesus intimately, the same way St. Peter and many holy saints have known Him.

Prayer: Lord, we come to you in prayer. Even though we cannot see you, we know through faith that you are present in our lives. We hope in your promise to be with us. We love you, and we know you love us. Accept this prayer as a token of our love. Amen.

God Bless,
Fr. Carusi

2023 FEAST IN HONOR OF ST. ROCCO

THANK YOU!!

A sincere and heartfelt Thank You to all those who made this year's Feast so successful. Of course, first we must thank Almighty God for the beautiful weather and for the opportunity to celebrate our Feast. There are many places throughout the world where Christians are persecuted for their beliefs or are not allowed to practice their beliefs in public. Let us continually pray for true Religious Freedom to be the order of the day in our Country and throughout the world.

Many thanks to Richard Montella, our Feast Chairman. He gives so much of his time and talent generously for the success of our Feast and Parish. Thank you to Alex Paliotta as well for giving so much of his time and effort for a successful Feast and for keeping the church grounds beautiful. Many thanks for SO MANY VOLUNTEERS, OF ALL AGES, who have worked so hard before, during and after the Feast cooking, frying, baking, cleaning, setting up, taking down, selling tickets, washing pots and pans, throwing out the garbage, counting money, working at the straw draw, the beer garden, the pastry booth, ride ticket booth or lending a hand in any way. Many thanks to all our Parishioners who come out in support of the Feast at our Masses, in the Processions, under the Tent, or Praying for us at home.

Many thanks to Christopher & Marissa Caramello and our Choir for the beautiful music throughout the Feast Triduum and the Feast weekend. Many thanks to Deacon Bob, Sr. Mary Antoinette, Sr. Daisy, Sr. Donna, Sr. Sheeba, and all our Sacristans, Ushers, Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers and Altar Servers who give of their time so generously. Many thanks to the Legion of Mary, the Women's Guild, the Holy Name Society, the CFA and all our Parish Societies who support the Feast and Parish in so many ways. Many thanks to our St. Rocco School Principal, Ms. Gina Hand, the Faculty and Staff and the entire St. Rocco School Community for their help, support and presence under the tent and at the Feast Mass and Procession.

Many thanks to our Feast Sponsors Don & Alicia DePetrillo and The Original Italian Bakery, Tasca Automotive Group, Deborah A. Palumbo, Anthony Caprio, David Caprio, Frank Caprio, Lucille Barone Sauro, Joyce Torrice, Mr. & Mrs. Francesco Cassisi and Cal Supply Company. Many thanks to our Major Donor Chairmen, Alex Paliotta and Carmine DiSanto and all their hard work. Many thanks to Ron Cece donating his time and talent taking beautiful pictures of the Feast and Larry Baldino for the beautiful floral arrangements for the Church and under the Tent.

As you can see, our Annual Feast and Festival is successful because of the hard work and dedication of so many people; parishioners, family and friends. I am VERY GRATEFUL to everyone who has lent a helping hand and prayers for the success of our Annual Feast in Honor of St. Rocco. God Bless You All!!

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

□ As often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes □
 (1 Corinthians 11:26).

Our Lord Jesus wants to meet us in our brokenness. It's at that point He can touch, at the core of our being, the depth of our souls, the point at which He can heal our emotional and spiritual wounds. While sitting, standing or kneeling before the Blessed Sacrament, we can give such hurts to Jesus. The Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith, so when we sit before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, we are spending time with our closest friend. Adoration also reminds us human agendas are different from God's. Isaiah 55:8-9 reads: □For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, my thoughts higher than your thoughts.□

So often we think of decisions and plans without truly seeking God's will. Spending time with Our Lord before the Blessed Sacrament allows us the time to see His will for our lives. Seeking Jesus is an ongoing adventure.

CHAMPION STATUS BUSINESS SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Most people understand that the real cost of education goes far beyond the school or district budget.

We simply need a little help with creating promotional incentive-

Your business can play a key role in the process of jump-starting our 2ND Annual Colorathon Fundraising Campaign held on Sunday, October 29th. All funds raised will be used for our school children for in-school events, field trips and new school equipment.

We're not asking for thousands - but we are requesting a tax-deductible donation of $150 as one of our engagement level business sponsors.

How can you help?

Agree to Sponsor a Business Ad. Your help will defray the cost of exciting and socially popular prizes that are known to drive greater participation. Historically the more participation we have - the more successful the fundraising campaign.

TRANSLATION: Lots of small donations accumulate to large-money fundraisers.

As our student/families raise donations through a customized online sales portal through peer- to- peer sales, your business will be featured on our Facebook™ page and prominently on all our seller's web portals.

Please consider this sponsorship or advertising opportunity and let us know how you want to be involved. In return, we will recognize you as a Champion; a community business partner – after all you will be helping your own community and maybe even a student(s) or family that you know? You can expect hundreds to even thousand$ of views!

How it works!

- Email us your company/business logo. (in a hi-res jpeg format)
- Remit by mail or request that someone from the Parent Association pick up your check.

What you can expect and deserve!

1) Your company gets a rotating ad on our School's Donation Web Site. Your ad will be viewed every time someone registers online to be an active participant and will be seen on all our student/sellers' unique donation-sales web portal.

2) Plus, your logo will appear on our School's Website landing page for a period of up to one month.
